The equal time rule in political news, interviews and paid advertising must be restored.

The economic, moral, and public health damages and ramifications of previous policy that destroyed and deleted equal opportunity are now obvious.

This equal time reset is most vital to save America in the immediate and long term of history.